

Conditions of Award: Faithful Welcome

- Grants must be used for the purpose stated in application form. Any significant change in local circumstances affecting the aim of the project and the use of the grant should be discussed in advance with FiCS staff.
- Grant recipients will require to submit a brief report about the use of the grant along with a copy of their own annual report and independently examined or audited accounts. Failure to do so within six months of the end of your financial year may result in the withholding of any agreed future funding.
- Proper management, accounting and auditing procedures must be followed. Faith in Community Scotland may, at any time, enquire as to the suitability of these processes.
- Any grant offered should normally be taken up within three months of the date of award, otherwise the offer may be withdrawn and the organisation may require to re-apply.
- Any equipment purchased with a grant from Faith in Community Scotland should be satisfactorily maintained and insured.
- If the project comes to an end, or if the organisation's constitution is altered to such an extent that it would make the organisation ineligible to apply, the unused balance of any grant must be returned and you must consult with Faith in Community Scotland about the future use of equipment purchased.
- Further conditions in relation to specific projects may be set which will be advised in the letter of award.
- Failure to comply with the Conditions of Award may result in any agreed funding being withheld, or in Faith in Community Scotland being entitled to recover from the organisation any grant already awarded.
